The present volume is the logical sequel to Volume II, adding the private and related monuments of the reign of Amenhotep II to the mainly royal and official documentation presented in that volume. The scope and principles upon which this volume is based are identical with those stated in the prefaces to I & II. Again, this present volume is intended to give comprehensive coverage, but is not (and cannot be) an exhaustive corpus.

There remains now simply the pleasure of acknowledging thankfully much help received throughout the years in which the materials for this volume have been collected and utilised.

Again, fieldwork was vastly aided by the University of Liverpool through its award to the undersigned of the T.E. Peet Travelling Prize (1962/63) and support for travel, etc., from the then Joint Committee on Research, at and after that date. This volume in particular has benefitted most especially from an award kindly made by the Sir Ernest Cassel Trust in 1970, which enabled much useful recording work to be done in the private tombs of Western Thebes that year. Access to outlying sites was greatly facilitated through opportunities enjoyed of accompanying a series of Nile journeys under the auspices of Messrs. Bales (1963), Fairways & Swinford (1964) and especially Evans (1964-76). Other costs of travel, materials, recording, etc., were borne by the undersigned. As with Volumes I and II, Mr. D. Birch and his colleagues (Faculty Photographic Service) have kindly given their technical assistance, and my Semitics colleague Mr. A.R. Millard, electric typing facilities.

Besides the initial credits to be found in many rubrics throughout the body of this work, my grateful acknowledgements for their kindly help go to the following colleagues and institutions. The Egyptian Antiquities Organisation and the Egyptian
Museum, Cairo, and the Centre of Documentation (CEDAE) in 15 years’ work in Egypt (1962-1976). Likewise to the British Museum, Department of Egyptian Antiquities (T.G.H. James, M. L. Bierbrier, V.W. Davies, A.J. Spencer); the Griffith Institute (Dr. J. Mâlek, Miss H. Murray), Liverpool City Museum (Dr. D. Downes); the Louvre (the late J. Vandier; Mme Prof. Chr. Desroches-Noblecourt and staff); Athens National Museum; Ny Carlsberg Glyptotek (M. Jørgensen); Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York (Trustees, via Dr. C. Lillyquist); the Brooklyn Museum (Drs. B.V. Bothmer, R.S. Bianchi, R. Fazzini); Dr. L. Bell (UMP Theban expedition); Prof. H. Brunner (Tübingen); Prof. Dr. G.A. Gaballa (Cairo); Mr. L.E. Holden (Boston); Dr. D.A. Lowle (Liverpool); also to Dr. C. Mee (Classics, Liverpool). Finally, a word of thanks to my students, both undergraduate and postgraduate, for their understanding help at one vital juncture in finalising this volume. To all concerned, my express and hearty thanks.

In closing, it is fitting to renew the expression of my gratitude on a more personal plane: to Sir Basil Blackwell and his staff for their patient and gracious aid in publication; to my departmental colleagues for their kindly understanding at all times; and not least to my parents for their unfailing support as the years pass on.
